LOCAL BREVITIES.

School commenced Monday at district No. 5, north of town, with Walter McCray teacher.

A rousing free silver meeting was held at Dundee Friday night, and a number of new members signed up.

Milton Nickerson and Miss Susie L. Corbin, both of this city, took out a marriage license Wednesday of this week.

Did you hear "that silver craze dying out," last Thursday? What a joy there will be on the judgement day—Nov. 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Plankenhorn, of South Bend township, are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine girl baby at their house, Monday of this week.

Wilson O'Neal, of Poe, Kans., is visiting with his brother Clinton southwest of town. He will leave for Hutchinson, Kans., for a few months.

A democrat and populist caucus of the free silver voters of Wheatland township will be held on Saturday, Oct. 10th, to nominate a township ticket.

Where will "Captain Ogden, of Ness City" hide his head after the November returns are in? He is the fellow who had a fit at the meeting last Monday night.

Senator Landis and Judge B. F. Milton addressed a good audience at Ellinwood Friday night. The Bryan club gave a torch light procession before the meeting.

Editor J. C. Lohwas, of the Ness City Echo, favored the DEMOCRAT office with a social call, last Thursday. Mr. Lohwas says Ness is safe for Bryan and free silver, and Jerry on the side.

Albert Spencer called Thursday to do business with the editor. He has been "making hay while the sun shines," having cut 400 acres of grass the past month with a Deering mower, and is still at it.

Ellinwood has established a skimming station at Larned. This, along with the Benders who occasionally visit the burg will keep that Sleepy Hollow from being effaced from the map.—Hoisington Dispatch.

A. A. Durr, editor of the Larned Tiller and Toiler made us an appreciated call last Thursday. He is loud in his praise of the way Great Bend handled the big crowd, and full of an abiding faith in Jerry's election.

Hon. F. L. Bond and Geo. M. Munger, two entertaining speakers, will address the people of the north side, at Hoisington, on the afternoon of Oct. 15—Thursday next, in behalf of Bryan and the free silver ticket.

If you don't think Barton county is safe for from 400 to 600 for the Bryan ticket, get out to the meetings at the different school houses and notice the earnest determination of the farmers who are tired of these gold-standard hard times.

Editor Torry, of the LaCrosse Chieftain, was a caller on the DEMOCRAT, Thursday. He has the same cheering words that comes from all over the big seventh district, i. e., that we are safe in the district for a majority for silver of at least 5,000.

Hon. M. Watson, free silver republican candidate for representative in Reno county, will address the voters of Pawnee Rock on Monday evening the 12th. Mr. Watson is an eloquent and logical speaker, and everybody who can should hear him.

H. S. Converse, living in the south part of town, brought in a sample of sweet potato last week that takes the oakery. It weighs 9½ pounds, and was one of three in a hill that weighed a total of 16 pounds. We put it on exhibition in Allen's window, and it was the wonder of hundreds.

Elsewhere notice the calls for democratic and populist caucuses in Pawnee Rock. The meeting of free silver voters held on Monday last is not considered legal, and therefore the two caucuses are called by the regular committeemen. Every free silver voter is invited to participate in these caucuses.

Some people contend that the G. A. R. is not a political organization; yet their big reunion at Topeka last week turned into a regular gold-bug rally, or jollification. If Topeka was not such a benighted gold-bug town the managers of the fall festivities would not have permitted half the visitors to the city to be thus imposed upon.

GREAT BEND, KANS.

It is too bad that Hanna's committee sent a German orator clear from Chicago to Ellinwood last week to teach goldbugism to the strudy-business men and farmers of that vicinity, and not a man showed up to be taught. It is really sad to contemplate.
